Newspaper report in Reading Mercury, Reading, Berkshire, England – 14 October, 1916:

SOLDIER'S DEATH FROM PNEUMONIA

An imposing a military funeral was accorded on Saturday to Corporal Burton of the Australian Imperial Forces. The funeral was attended by the whole Pioneer School of Instruction from Coley Recreation, consisting of members of various regiments, numbering forty officers and 206 non-commissioned officers and men, in the following formation: A firing party of Australians, the band of the Royal Berkshire Depot, Reading, the Australian officers, the bearers, composed of Australian units, under Lieutenant Harper, Australian Imperial Force, the Scottish Highlanders, a platoon of Military Foot Police and various units of Irish, Scottish and Welsh regiments. The body was drawn on a gun carriage covered with the Union Jack, Lieutenant Spencer, of the 11th Dragoons, was in charge of the procession. The committal service at the graveside (at which the Commandant of the Pioneers, Colonel J. H. S. Grant Gordon, was present) was conducted by the Rev. R. W. Morley, curate of St. John's. There were numerous floral tributes from the officers, sergeants and men. Corporal Burton had been in camp at the Australian Headquarters, Tidworth, but recently he was transferred to the Pioneer School of Instruction in Coley Park. Here he was taken ill, and died from bronchial pneumonia on Tuesday, October 3rd, three days after admission to No. 5 War Hospital.

A letter was sent to Mr W. A. Roberts, of Norman Avenue, Norman Park, Sth Brisbane, Queensland, in April, 1920 from Base Records which reads "With reference to my communication of 11th January, 1918 regarding the regrettable loss of your step-brother the late No. 2078 Private C. J. Burton, 4th Pioneer Battalion, I am now in receipt of further advice which shows that his remains have been exhumed from former site and re-interred in Grave No. 16609, division 72, Reading Cemetery, Reading. This work is carried out with every measure of care and reverence in the presence of a Chaplain..."

Corporal Caleb James Burton was buried in Reading Cemetery, Berkshire – Screen Wall. 72. 16609. Those buried in Plot 72 & buried in other parts of the cemetery that do not have headstones marking their graves are named on the Memorial Screen Wall located near the Cross of Sacrifice. Their deaths are still acknowledged by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission.

Base Records contacted Mr W. A. Roberts, of Norman Avenue, Norman Park, Brisbane in December, 1921 & again in May, 1923 asking if there were any nearer blood relatives – brothers or sisters as it was understood that Cpl. Burton's parents were deceased due to the "Deceased Soldiers Estates Act 1918" which stated that the War Medals & Mementoes of a deceased soldier were to be handed in the following order of relationship – Widow, eldest surviving son, eldest surviving daughter, father, mother, eldest surviving brother, eldest surviving sister etc.

A notice in The Queenslander newspaper was placed on 30th December, 1922:

THE SOLDIERS' NEXT OF KIN WANTED

The next of kin or persons knowing the whereabouts of the next of kin of the undermentioned deceased soldiers are requested to communicate with the Officer in Charge, Base Records, Melbourne, as early as possible, giving full regimental particulars of the deceased soldier in such communication...2078, Cpl. C. J. Burton, 4th Pnr Battn;.....

No response was received from the newspaper notice. Records showed that the War Gratuity was paid to Miss Doris Roberts (half-sister) of Norman Avenue, Norman Park, South Brisbane – the same address for Mr W. A. Roberts listed as the next-of-kin. William A. Roberts of Norman Avenue, Norman Park, East Brisbane, replied to Base Records in May, 1923 advising that the parents of the late No. 2078 Corporal C. J. Burton were deceased & there were no brother or sisters. Mr Roberts stated he was the eldest half-brother.

A War Pension was granted to Doris Roberts, Wolloongabba, half sister of late Pte Caleb James Burton, 2078, 4th Pioneers in the sum of £1 per fortnight as from 10th December, 1916. Trustee listed as William Arnold Roberts, Wolloongabba.

Mrs Doris Stevens (nee Doris Ann Roberts) wrote to Base Records in November, 1937 regarding her half-brother Corporal Caleb James Burton. She stated that she was dependent upon him while he was away. Mrs Stevens stated she had received his Gratuity Bond in two instalments, one when she was sixteen and the remainder when she was twenty one. Mrs Stevens was enquiring if Cpl. Burton's deferred pay was included in the money she had received & was she entitled to a pension through his death. She stated all the affairs concerning Cpl. Burton were attended to by her brother William Arnold Roberts. She stated she had no knowledge of what was done & was recently told that she may be entitled to some Pensions as she was Cpl. Burton's dependant. Mrs D. Stevens was advised by reply letter that War Pensions were not administered by Base Records & that her enquiry should be addressed to the Repatriation Department.

Corporal Caleb James Burton was entitled to British War Medal only as he had not entered a Theatre of War. A Memorial Scroll & Memorial Plaque were also sent to Corporal Burton's eldest half-brother – William Arnold Roberts, as the closest next-of-kin. (Scroll & Plaque both sent May, 1923).

The Commonwealth War Graves Commission lists Corporal C. J. Burton – service number 2078, of 4th Australian Pioneers. No family details are listed.

Corporal C. J. Burton is commemorated on the Roll of Honour, located in the Hall of Memory Commemorative Area at the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, Australia on Panel 173.
