Sydney Cuthbert COLLINGWOOD

Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood's birth was registered in the district of Blean, Kent, England in the September quarter, 1887, to parents Edward Samuel & Emma Collingwood.

The 1891 England Census listed Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood as a 3 year old living with his family at 32 Whitstable Road, St. Dunstan, Kent. His parents were listed as Edward S. Collingwood (Bank Clerk, aged 39, born Adelaide, Australia) & Emma Collingwood (aged 35, born Whitstable, Kent). Sydney was one of 6 children listed on this Census – Violet Hilda (aged 13, Scholar), Ida Agnes (aged 10, Scholar), Christian H. (aged 7, Scholar), Douglas Edwd. (aged 5, Scholar), then Sidney & Ernest Percival (aged 2). Also listed in the household was Fanny Trayton, a 15 year old servant. All the children listed had been born at Canterbury, Kent.

The 1901 England Census listed Sidney C. Collingwood as a 13 year old living with his family at Manor House, Fordwich, Kent. His father was listed as Edward S. Collingwood (aged 49, Married, Bank Clerk). Sidney's mother was not listed in this Census. Sidney was one of 6 children listed in this Census - Violet H. (aged 23), Alice M. (aged 19), Douglas E. (aged 15, Solicitor's Clerk), then Sidney, Ernest P. (aged 12) & Dorothy M. (aged 7).

Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood had served with the New Zealand Forces in 1914 & 1915 but had been discharged due to Rheumatic Fever caught whilst on duty.

Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood was a 27 year old, single Cook when he enlisted at Bunbury, Western Australia on 7th March, 1917 with the 51st Infantry Battalion, 10th Reinforcements of the Australian Army (A.I.F.). His service number was 3639 & his religion was Church of England. His next of kin was listed as his father – Mr Edward Samuel Collingwood of Middle Swan, via Midland Junction, Western Australia. According to information supplied by Mrs Gertrude Collingwood, wife of Pte Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood, he had never lived in Australia but enlisted with the A.I.F. whilst visiting his parents.

Pte Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood embarked from Fremantle on HMAT Borda (A30) on 29th June, 1917 & disembarked at Plymouth, England on 25th August, 1917.

Reinforcements were only given basic training in Australia. Training was completed in training units in England. Some of these were located in the Salisbury Plain & surrounding areas in the county of Wiltshire.

Private Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood was marched in to 13th Training Battalion at Codford, Wiltshire from Australia on 26th August, 1917.

Pte Collingwood was sent sick to Group Hospital at Codford on 6th September, 1917 with Lumbago & discharged to duty on 14th September, 1917.

Pte Collingwood was absent without leave at Codford from 8 a.m. until 8.20 p.m. on 17th October, 1917 & was awarded a total forfeiture of 2 days' pay.

A Medical Report "on an Invalid" was made on 1st December, 1917 on Pte Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood of 13th T. B. at Codford, Wiltshire. His disability was described as Neuritis of left thigh & chronic osteomyelitis. Prior to enlistment Pte Collingwood had been operated on five years ago "for abscess in the bone (left thigh) in Sumatra & has had aching pains in it on & off ever since, especially in cold, damp weather & after much exercise. Paraded sick with aching pains in left thigh leg & inability to keep up with his fellows at doubling. Gives a history of injury to thigh preceding the abscess formation. Staphylococcal infection of left femur. Prior to enlistment – not aggravated by active service." The Medical Board made a decision on 3rd December, 1917 & Pte Collingwood was classified at C1 – which meant he was permanently unfit for General Service but fit for home service only.

Pte Collingwood was attached to Australian Provost Corps at Tidworth, Wiltshire on 27th January, 1918.

Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood, aged 30, married Gertrude Francis Annie Beaumont, aged 37, on 14th February, 1918 at St. Peter's Church, Hornsey, Middlesex. Their marriage was registered in the district of Edmonton in the March quarter, 1918. Sydney Collingwood's rank or profession was listed as Pte Australian Provost Corps. Both Bridge & groom had listed their address as 83 Beresford Road. The Marriage Bonds and Allegations had been signed by Sydney & Gertrude on 18th January, 1918.

At a review of his Medical Classification at Tidworth, Wiltshire on 26th March, 1918, Pte Collingwood was still classified as C1 – fit for Home service only.

Pte Collingwood was detached from duty with Australian Provost Corps & marched out to No. 2 Command Depot at Weymouth on 13th December, 1918.

Pte Collingwood was written up for being absent without leave from 23.59 on 20th December, 1918 to 08.00 on 25th December, 1918. The case was dismissed by Major Cunningham (Medical Certificate).

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte Sydney Cuthbert Collingwood does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
