E. T. FROUD

43RD BN. AUSTRALIAN INF.

13TH JULY, 1917 Age 36

Edward Thomas FROUD

Edward Thomas Froud was born in London, England between 1872 & 1885.

[There are several differences recorded for Edward Froud's age - Burial report states he died aged 35; CWGC states he died aged 36, Death Registered in UK states he died at age 43 & his age on Attestation Papers states he was 31. It is also difficult to research Edward Froud's earlier life as there are no family details listed on the CWGC. However, his sisters are both listed as being present at his funeral, so a search was conducted on his sister Jessie Kidner – Jessie Froud married George Frederick Kidner on 13th March, 1899 in St. Thomas' Church, Hackney. Jessie was aged 19, living at 109 Osbaldeston Road & her father was recorded as Charles Maxwell Froud, A Licensed Victualler].

From the above information regarding Jessie Froud, sister of Edward Froud & the recording of their father's name, the Censuses were then able to be searched & the following information obtained & confirmed.

It is quite probable from the information obtained that Private Edward Thomas Froud who died on 13th July, 1917 was actually baptised on 19th August, 1877 at Christ Church, Chelsea, Middlesex, England with the name Edward Henry Froud. His parents were Charles Maxwell Froud & Lucy Peters Froud (nee Jarmain).

The 1881 England Census recorded Edward H. Froud as an 8 year old Scholar, born Ealing, Middlesex, living with his family at Holly Mount, Hampstead – Holly Bush Hotel. His parents were listed as Charles M. Froud (Licensed Victualler, aged 44) & Lucy Froud (aged 41). Edward was one of seven children listed on this Census - Lucy (aged 20), Lillian (aged 16), Alice M. (Scholar, aged 14), Ada (Scholar, aged 12) then Edward, Rosina (scholar, aged 6) & Jessie (aged 1). Five servants were also listed.

Holly Bush Hotel

The 1891 England Census recorded Edward H. Froud as an 18 year old Fish ______ living with his family at 106 Mildmay Grove, Highbury, Islington, London – Radnor Arms. His parents were listed as Charles M. Froud (Licensed Victualler, aged 54) & Lucy Froud (aged 51). Edward was one of six children listed on this Census – Alice M. (aged 24) then Edward, Albert F. (scholar, aged 13), Jessie (Scholar, aged 12), Thomas (Scholar, aged 9) & Herbert K. (Scholar, aged 8). Also listed was a Boarder working as a Barmaid.

Radnor Arms

A death was registered in March quarter, 1892 in the district of Islington, London for Charles Maxwell Froud, aged 55, father of Edward Henry Froud. Charles Maxwell Froud had died on 26th February, 1892 at the Radnor Arms, Islington, London.

Edward Henry Froud married Lillian Sheldon Dean on 9th March, 1897 at St Michael and All Angels, Stoke Newington, Hackney. Edward Henry Froud was recorded as a 25 year old Licensed Victualler from 109 Osbaldeston Road (the same address as his sister Jessie Froud gave for her marriage in 1899).

The 1901 England Census recorded Edward Froud as a 28 year old ____ Water Traveller living with his wife Lily Froud in a 2 room dwelling at 48 Cumberland Market, St. Pancras, London.

A birth was registered for Edward Albert Froud, son of Edward & Lillian Froud, in the September quarter, 1901 in the district of Pancras. He was born on 5th July, 1901 at 48 Cumberland Market, St. Pancras, London. (Lillian Sheldon Froud died on 19th October, 1908 at Bethnal Green, London. Probate details – Lilian Sheldon of 87 Buxton Road, Stratford, Essex (wife of Edward Henry Froud) died 19th October, 1908 at Bethnal Green Infirmary, Middlesex. Administration – London 5 March to the said Edward henry Froud – Ship's Steward. Effects £85).

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter from Base Records, dated 12th July, 1921, to Mrs M. M. Froud, C/- 16 Payneham Road, St. Peters, South Australia, advised that a letter from the Defence Dept. concerning an inscription on the headstone of her husband, the late Pte E. T. Froud, had not been answered & non-receipt of a reply within 21 days would have to be accepted as indicating that no further action was to be taken.

Private E. T. Froud does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.

Shorncliffe Military Cemetery, Folkestone, Kent, England

Shorncliffe Military Cemetery belongs to the Ministry of Defence and contains war graves of both World Wars. It is close to the military camp at Shorncliffe, 2 miles west of Folkestone

During the First World War a number of Canadian military establishments were centred on Shorncliffe. There were camps and a Machine Gun School which were served by the Shorncliffe Military Hospital (later No. 9 Canadian General), the Moore Barracks Military Hospital (later No. 11 Canadian General), and other Canadian hospitals. The Canadian Army Medical Corps Training Depot was at or near Shorncliffe during almost the whole of the war. On three occasions Canadian soldiers were killed during air raids on Shorncliffe.

Shorncliffe Military Cemetery contains 471 First World War burials, more than 300 of them Canadian. Second World War burials number 81, including 1 unidentified U.K. soldier and 1 Polish Foreign National. The cemetery also contains a screen wall on which are commemorated 18 Belgians originally buried in a mausoleum, now demolished.

There are 11 Australians from World War 1 buried in this Cemetery – 2 with Royal Air Force.
