WYNYARD NOTES

MUSEUM AFTERNOON

It was a happy idea on the part of the committee of the Wynyard Remembrance Evenings to decide to hold a museum afternoon in aid of its special effort to obtain goods for the Soldiers' Xmas parcels. When this was decided upon Mrs. Windsor, with her accustomed energy, made a canvass for curios. The response was a surprise even to her, and as a result the Town Hall was not large enough to accommodate the many articles and those who wished to see them. Relics, centuries old, from all parts of the world were shown, and the only regret was that there was not longer time in which to inspect them. Some of the works of art were priceless, and had been handed down for generations. They ranged from curios from somewhere B.C. to the present date. Soldiers' trophies were well represented, and included a collection of shell cases, gas helmet, sword from the Battle of Waterloo, bullets taken from the body of one of the Table Cape boys in this war, piece of high explosive shell. Military Medal won in this war, South African medals, and medals of the Indian mutiny. Prominent in the collection of soldiers' trophies was a full-size photograph of the Australian hero, with the words— "Birdie,' God Bless Him." Notwithstanding the great value and exceptional interest taken in the exhibition of antiques and other relics, there was one part of the museum which stood for more than all these. In this was a large lithographic picture of the Union Jack, around which were placed the photographs of some of Table Cape's heroic dead — men who had made the supreme sacrifice in this great war. Amongst these photographs were those, of Captains Tyrrell and Margetts, Drive Lance Gutteridge, Sergts. Harold Gates and S. J. Game, Ptes. W. Stewart. H. French, Leo Berechree, Bert Frimley, Les Ridge, R. Stuart, and E. J. Gadsbury. A copy of the Wynyard Roll of Honor occupied a prominent place in the group. Afternoon tea was provided by the committee, and handed round by a bevy of ladies daintily attired in white and heliotrope dresses, with quaint tall hats of similar colors. Songs were pleasingly rendered by Mrs. Daglish and Misses Kennedy, Gilmour, and Dixon. Mrs. Laing played the accompaniments. The museum was declared open by Mr. C. J. Mackenzie, who commended the good work of the ladies, and expressed the hope that this would, be the last occasion on which it would be necessary to send Xmas parcels to our boys at the front. Speaking from experience, Lance-Corpl R. W. Harrison testified to the joy that these Xmas parcels bring to the men in the firing line, and on their behalf thanked all who assisted in the cause. The proceeds amounted to £5/13/3; 180 articles were handed in at the door. Cash donations were received from the following:—Mrs. P. Symes, £1; Mr. John Mayne. 5/; Mrs. Cullen, 2/6; Miss Wilkinson. 3/; .Mrs. W. Dart 2/; Mrs. E. Cox, 1. Included in the list of articles were 12 Xmas plum puddings contributed by Mr. F. Joscelyne's staff, and 25/ box of tobacco donated by Mr. R. Gutteridge. The committee also acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a large piece of bacon from Mr P. Ridge, Boat Harbour. Owing to the Y.M.C.A requiring the Town Hall for its function to Red Triangle members, the next Remembrance Evening will be held on Wednesday next, not Tuesday.

IN MEMORIAM

GADSBURY – In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Private E. J. Gadsbury, who died of wounds received in France, July 22, 1917.

No mother was there to soothe his brow;

No brothers there to say good-by;

No sister to take him by the hand,

When death was drawing nigh.

No loved ones stood around him

To catch his last faint sighs;

Nor whisper just one loving word

Before he closed his eyes.

-Inserted by his loving parents, sisters and brothers, Mt. Hicks.

(The North Western Advocate and the Emu Bay Times, Tasmania – 22 July, 1918)

IN MEMORIAM

GADSBURY – In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Pte Ernest J. Gadsbury, who died of wounds received in France, July 22, 1917.

Did he whisper our name when dying?

Or breath out a parting prayer?

Oh, where did they bury our darling boy;

Does anyone know or care?

Midnight stars are shining on a grave so far away.

Where they laid our dearest loved one, just two years ago to-day.

-Inserted by his loving parents, sister and brother, Mt. Hicks.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter from Base Records, dated 12th July, 1921, to Mr J. Gadsbury, Mount Hicks, Tasmania, advised that a letter from the Defence Dept. concerning an inscription on the headstone of his son, the late No. 6023 Private E. J. Gadsbury, 12th Battalion, had not been answered & non-receipt of a reply within 21 days would have to be accepted as indicating that no further action was to be taken.

Private E. J. Gadsbury does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.

Brookwood Military Cemetery, Surrey, England

Located 30 miles from London in Surrey, Brookwood Military Cemetery is the largest CWGC cemetery in the United Kingdom. The cemetery contains the graves of more than 1,600 servicemen of the British Empire in the First World War and over 3,470 from the Second World War.

Brookwood Military Cemetery lies adjacent to Brookwood Cemetery (The London Necropolis), a vast space which covers 500 acres. In 1917, an area to the north of the cemetery was set aside as Brookwood Military Cemetery for men and women of Commonwealth forces who died, many of battle wounds, in the London district. This site was further extended to accommodate Commonwealth casualties of the Second World War. (Information from CWGC)
