1145 PRIVATE

V. C. MARSHALL

26TH BN. AUSTRALIAN INF.
26TH SEPTEMBER, 1915

Vere Claude MARSHALL

Vere Claude Marshall was born at Macquarie Plains, Tasmania on 8th May, 1896 to parents Robert Warren Marshall & Frances Marshall (nee Koslowski).

Vere Claude Marshall attended Glenora School, Tasmania.

Vere Claude Marshall was a 19 year old, single, Shop Assistant from Macquarie Plains, Tasmania when he enlisted at Claremont, Tasmania on 22nd April, 1915 with the Australian Imperial Force (A.I.F.). His service number was 1145 & his religion was Church of England. His next of kin was listed as his father – Mr Robert Marshall, Macquarie Plains, Tasmania. Vere Marshall stated on his Attestation Papers that he had served in Cadets for 4 years. As Vere Marshall was under the age of 21 years, his parents were required to sign their consent for their son to enlist in the Australian Imperial Force for active service abroad. Robert Marshall signed his consent for his son to join the Expeditionary Forces on 10th April, 1915.

Private Vere Claude Marshall embarked from Brisbane, Queensland on HMAT Aeneas (A60) on 29th June, 1915 with the 7th Infantry Brigade, 26th Infantry Battalion "D" Company with his older brother Private John Herbert Marshall, 1216, 7th Infantry Brigade, 26th Infantry Battalion "D" Company.

26th Battalion

The 26th Battalion was raised at Enoggera, Queensland, in April 1915 from recruits enlisted in Queensland and Tasmania, and formed part of the 7th Brigade. It left Australia in July, and, after training in Egypt, landed at Gallipoli on 12 September. At Gallipoli, the 26th played a purely defensive role and at various times was responsible for the defence of Courtney's and Steele's Posts, and Russell's Top. It withdrew from the peninsula on 12 December.

Front Inscription

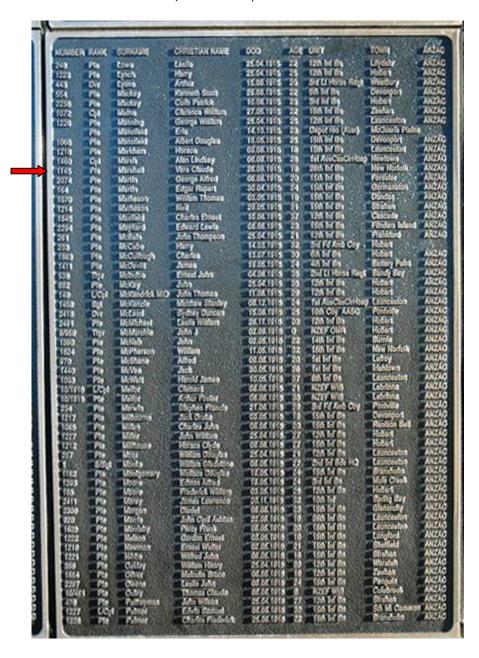

Tasmania's World War One Roll of Honour, 1914 - 1918

The names of 3165 soldiers, sailors and airmen who were Tasmanian by birth or residence and died from their service in WW1 are commemorated on these walls. Their names appear alphabetically, grouped by the year of death. These men served with Australian, New Zealand and British units.

"What these men did nothing can alter now. The good and the bad, the greatness and the smallness of their story will stand. Whatever of glory it contains nothing now can lessen. It rises, as it will always rise, above the mists of ages, a monument to great hearted men; and for their nation, a possession forever."

DIED OF WOUNDS

Private V. C. Marshall, 26th Battalion, Macquarie Plains

(Zeehan and Dundas Herald, Tasmania – 15 October, 1915)

IN MEMORIAM

MARSHALL – In loving memory of our dear son and Brother, Private Vere Claude Marshall, died September 26, 1915, of wounds received at Gallipoli.

Sweet to our memory, dear to our hearts,

Love for his memory ne'er shall depart;

Sadly we miss him and try not to grieve;

He fought for his country, and died as the brave.

He sought the Lord ere he answered the call,

To Christ and the Empire devoted:

A soldier brave, beloved by all,

To heaven has been promoted.

Inserted by his loving parents, sisters and brothers.

(The Mercury, Hobart, Tasmania – 26 September, 1916)

IN MEMORIAM

MARSHALL – In loving memory of our dear Vere, who died of wound received at Gallipoli September 26, 1915; also dear Jack killed in action in France August 5, 1916.

They died for their country that others may live

They laid down their lives, they had no more to give.

They sacrificed all, eager to go

To meet and to fight our Empire's vile foe.

Beloved by all.

Inserted by their loving parents, sisters and brothers.

(The Mercury, Hobart, Tasmania – 26 September, 1917)

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Private V. C. Marshall does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.

Netley Military Cemetery, Hampshire, England

Netley Military Cemetery is a permanent military cemetery, the property of the Ministry of Defence. The cemetery was at the back of the Royal Victoria Military Hospital and was used during both wars for burials from the hospital. The cemetery contains 637 First World War burials but only 35 from the Second World War. In addition to the Commonwealth graves, there are a number of war graves of other nationalities including 69 German graves dating from the First World War.
