From the burial report of Pte Percy Francis Williams – The deceased soldier was accorded a Military funeral..... Referring to Private Williams – 2nd Lieut. W. A. Kelle, "B" Company, 2nd Training Battalion wrote – "...His loss is sincerely regretted by myself and 2nd Lieut. Sharp, likewise by N.C.O.'s and men of the Unit and those with whom he has come in contact since arrival here."

The Red Cross Wounded & Missing File for Pte P. F. Williams contains a request from the Red Cross, on behalf of his family, regarding any details about his death. A reply from the Assistant Matron, Fargo Military Hospital reads:

"Pte P. F. Williams 7099 died in this hospital on March 14th from Broncho Pneumonia. He was buried on 17.3.17 at Durrington Wilts, grave No. 221 right hand side of cemetery path. Pte Williams was very ill, but he made a very hard fight against the disease. He left no messages as his mind was not very clear the last few days. I wrote again to his people in Australia the other day – and also a cousin who lives quite near the hospital came over making enquiries a few weeks ago."

Pte Percy Francis Williams requested in his Will that half of his money to be given to his mother – Mrs Maryann Williams & also his ring. The remaining half to be given to Doris Evelyn Walker & also his wrist watch was to go to D. E. Walker.

Pte Percy Francis Williams was entitled to British War Medal only as he had not entered a Theatre of War. A Memorial Scroll & Memorial Plaque were also sent to Pte Williams' father – Mr E. Williams (sent December, 1922 & January, 1923)

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at Durrington War Graves Cemetery. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte P. F. Williams does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
